Bo – Sorry I am only getting back to you late on this. I did some cutting, but more than anything are suggestions for lumping/combining bullets which is going to quite a bit of work (sorry). Please do not work on this over the weekend! We can pick it up first thing on Tuesday and we can find time to discuss once your review my comments. Thank you and have a great weekend!

Hi Marietta –

Here is the draft document that we discussed earlier this morning. I'll also send Tony an email asking him to give me a link to the new uses so I can include that as well.

Looking forward to receiving your feedback.
